Terms of use and legal information

By using the 28FiTech AG website (hereinafter “Website”), you confirm that you have understood and accept the legal information, important notes and terms of use presented here.

If you do not accept the terms of use, please refrain from using this Website.

Conflicts of interest

From time to time, the issuer and/or lead manager and/or their third-party agents may, for their own account or for the account of others, take positions in securities, currencies, financial instruments or other assets that serve as an underlying asset to the products on this Website. They may buy or sell these assets, act as market makers, and simultaneously operate as seller or as purchaser. The trading or hedging activities of the issuers and/or lead manager and/or their third-party agents may influence the price of an underlying asset and may influence whether or not the relevant barrier level is reached (if such a level exists).

Cookies
